

Children's use of the Internet in Ireland Survey 2014

Oisín Byrne
iReach Insights

Methodology

What?
ISPAI - Hotline
Seminar

When?
Fieldwork
April 2014

How?
iReach Insights Online Study

Who?
Consumer Decisions
Omnibus

How Many?
778 Parents of "Connected"
Children

Use of Social Media

iReach Market Research

Children's use of e-mail

65% of children have some form of e-mail

iReach Market Research

Posting Selfies Online

Parents' Attitudes to Selfies

iReach Market Research

Concerns With Personal Data Online

iReach Market Research

Children giving out their personal contact details online concerns 81% of parents, 49% of which are very concerned

Family Rules

iReach Market Research

65% of parents have some rules for online/phone activities with 40% having online rules

iReach Market Research

Use of Monitoring Software

60% of parents would like to monitor their children's mobile and online activities

iReach Market Research

Sharing w Childre

68% would tell their that they can track and texting activities

Sharing with Children

68% would tell their children that they can track their online and texting activities

(32%) I would keep it hidden (68%) I would tell my children

iReach Market Research

Executive Summary

- Use of Viber and Instagram is higher amongst children than their parents while parents show higher usage levels of Facebook and Skype
- 65% of children have email id's
- 46% of children take and post selfies online compared to 26% of their parents
- 60% of parents 'don't like' selfies, when it comes to their children's posting pictures
- Children giving their personal data online is a matter of concern for 81% of parents
- 74% of parents have 'house rules', but just 28% of them have rules for all online and mobile phone activities and an additional 12% for online only rules for their children

Oisin Byrne
iReach Insights